TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE.

Guildford. Royal Grammar School, founded in 1509, received a charter from Edward VI. in 1550. The stone front, with its mullioned windows and three little gables, is remarkably picturesque. Among other provisions of the ancient statutes is a curious one that decreed that "every scholar of the sayd schole shall pay eightpence yearly towards the provision of brooms [birches] and rods to be used in the sayd schole."

Dear Zoe

We have started at East & are now
well on our way.

I'm very sorry to say that we shan't be able to come to Ramsgate
because we've had to cut
two days out of our holiday
Love Katie
